Fingering chart for a Hotteterre flute

The chart displays two rows of notes on a treble clef staff. Each note is accompanied by a fingering diagram consisting of three circles representing the fingers (index, middle, ring) and a diamond representing the thumb. Filled circles indicate a finger is pressed down, while empty circles indicate it is not. The notes and their fingerings are as follows:

Row 1 Note	Row 1 Fingering	Row 2 Note	Row 2 Fingering
D	Index, Middle, Ring, Thumb	G ^b	Index, Middle, Ring, Thumb
D [#]	Index, Middle, Ring, Thumb	G	Index, Middle, Ring, Thumb
